MORE DETAILS COMING SOON

Landlord Training Registration is Open

If you own or manage rental property, be sure to sign up for City of Raleigh's Landlord Training Program. The course will be held on October 23. You will learn how to screen tenants, strengthen rental agreements, take steps to resolve problems and gather other useful tips. Information will also be provided on the role of the City's Police, Inspections, and Community Services Departments. A representative of the Raleigh Housing Authority will provide information on the federal Housing Choice Voucher Program. Lawyers and real estate agents can receive continuing education credits for the course, which will be from 8:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. at 971 Harp Street.

For more information please visit www.raleighnc.gov (search 'landlord training') or contact Patricia Cheek at patricia.cheek@raleighnc.gov or 919-996-5720.
